PERFORMANCE MAGAZINE OF DTI REGION 7 MAY 2018

May MMXVIII

May glided in as the DTI launched new batch of mentees under the Kapatid Mentor Micro Enterprise (KMME) program in Cebu and Bohol.

Project KAPATID is an initiative of the DTI and the Philippine Center for Entrepreneurship (PCE) to help the country's micro and small enterprises (MSEs) through three key components:

The Mentor ME (micro entrepreneurs) program, a coaching and mentoring approach where large corporations teach MSEs on different aspects of business operations

The Adopt-an-SSF (Shared Service Facility) program, which aims to help micro entrepreneurs by providing them access to SSFs in their community

The Inclusive Business (IB) model where MSEs are linked into large companies' value chains

DTI, DSWD, LGU conduct crochet-making in Loboc

The Department of Trade and Industry Negosyo Center Loboc in Bohol, in partnership with the Department of Social Welfare and Development – Sustainable Livelihood Program (DSWD-SLP) and the Loboc Local Government Unit, conducted a skills training activity on Crocheted Souvenir last April 23-24, 2018 at the Barangay hall of Villaflor Loboc, Bohol.

Participants to the training included members of the Souvenir Sustainable Livelihood Beneficiaries Association who are also beneficiaries of DSWD's Sustainable Livelihood Program.

The activity was designed to promote crochet as an innovative method of presenting souvenir items.

It aims to enhance skills of women particularly in rural areas of the community in handicraft-making which they can make business and increase local job opportunities that will become an alternative source of income for them.

The resource speaker of the training was the locally renowned crochet-maker from Tagbilaran City Mae Delusa.

In the two days training, Ms. Delusa shared her knowledge in crochet and taught the participants the skill.

The establishment of Negosyo Centers is provided under the Republic Act 10644, or the Go Negosyo Act and is meant to assist DTI in the creation and development of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs).

Negosyo Center services provides MSMEs the ease of doing business, and facilitates access to financial assistance, and shared service facilities (SSF), among others. (ends)

Negosyo Center Bais assists returning OFWs

Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) are considered modern day heroes in our land. It is because they sacrifice so much to work in foreign lands away from their families while they contribute to the development of our country. For these reasons, OFWs deserve so much help from the government, particularly when they seek assistance as soon as they return home.

Some of them choose not to leave the country again and would opt to start a small business. But their lack of knowledge and deficiency in skills has become a hindrance and has kept them unmotivated to set-up their own business.

Before, it used to take a long time to apply for business permits or the process in starting a business, Now, with the Negosyo Centers, returning OFWs who possessed an entrepreneurial mindset can now avail the services of these business centers scattered in different places in the country.

In Bais Negros Oriental, a few returning OFWs visited the Negosyo Center for an audience with Business Counselor Frezhe Bacongallo. These OFWs were planning to set-up a small business and they sought assistance from the Negosyo Center Bais to pursue their plan. The business counselor assigned provided them counseling on starting a business and answered their queries about possible businesses they can venture.

The establishment of Negosyo Centers is provided under the Republic Act 10644, or the Go Negosyo Act and is meant to assist DTI in the creation and development of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs).

Negosyo Center services provides MSMEs the ease of doing business, and facilitates access to financial assistance, and shared service facilities (SSF), among others. (ends)

25 Bohol Micro, Small Entreps in 2nd KMME

By Rey Anthony Chiu

THE BEE FARM, DAUIS, May 9 (PIA)--Twenty-five promising and established entrepreneurs hoping to upgrade their market presence in Bohol and across the globe stepped in for Bohol's 2nd batch of free government business mentoring activities that grants them a peek into the business secrets of industry leaders.

Part of the Department of Trade and Industry's (DTI) and Philippine Center for Entrepreneurship's (PCE) Go Negosyo, Kapatid Mentor Micro Entrepreneurs (KMME) Program intends to help the country's micro and small enterprises through mentoring and coaching.

The DTI and the PCE brings in large corporations and industry leaders to teach their younger industry brothers the tricks of the trade in 10 module sessions running from May 9 to July when they graduate in time for the Sandugo season, according to DTI Bohol.

First introduced in Bohol in 2017, the KMME in Bohol proved to be a huge help to entrepreneurs struggling to hitch to the mainstream and bring competitiveness into the opening ASEAN markets, a graduate of the first KMME program shared.

DTI Regional Director Asteria Caberte said this is the first batch of KMME in the region this year and another KMME would be opening slots for Bohol micro and small enterprises by September.

While the opening ceremonies of the mentoring sessions was held at the Bohol Bee Farm, succeeding sessions would be at the Panda Tea garden and Suites, DTI Bohol sources said.

This is to facilitate the accessibility of the mentoring sessions to the 25 mentees who have long intended to learn of the aspects of business operations to preposition them towards a more inclusive business supply chain where they too can help their mentors on their supply side, DTI explained.

The free KMME modules run every Wednesday there on, and modules include Entrepreneurial Mindset and Values Formation, Marketing and several other key topics for entrepreneurs to get lessons from.

No less that chief executive officer of the RNC Marketing, Rey Calooy and the owner of The Bohol Bee Farm Vicky Wallace-Sandidge shared their business secrets for modules 1 and 2 while Philippine Center for Entrepreneurship Visayas Coordinator and Boholano Virgilio Espeleta, talked about Marketing.

Also present during launching ceremonies were DTI RD Asteria Caberte, Go Negosyo's Paul Anthony de Guzman and Bohol Chamber of Commerce and Industry represented by Marietta Gasatan of the South Palms and Marcela Group of Companies.

Also, the 25 mentees which included Cake Avenue, Israel's Pastries, Tessie's Sweets and Pastries, Tuko Cafe, Churro's, Cocina de Loboc and Ramirez Cakes and Pastries signed their commitments to attend and complete the Program designed to help improve current enterprises thru lecture, coaching and mentoring sessions, comply with assigned work from the mentors, participate during the sessions and share experiences, challenges and best practices with fellow mentees, regularly report weekly enterprise performance during the program and join in other DTI programs designed as follow-ups for mentees. BOI INVESTMENTS UP 28% IN FIRST 4 MONTHS OF 2018

The Philippine Board of Investments (BOI), the country's lead investments promotion agency, recorded a Php195.7 billion worth of investment approvals for the January to April 2018 period, an increase of 28 percent compared to the same period last year where it posted Php153.1 billion.

Trade Undersecretary and BOI Managing Head Ceferino Rodolfo elaborated that the bulk of the investment projects for the month of April came from the six air transport projects of Philippine Airlines, Inc. (PAL) with a combined investment amount of Php19.05 billion while the biggest single project approved was the Php5.2 billion project of MWM Terminals, Inc., a public-private partnership (PPP) known as the Paranaque Integrated Terminal Exchange in Coastal Road.

"These six projects by PAL alone indicate there is strong passenger traffic demand and once operational, it will re-energize the tourism industry especially when Boracay reopens before the end of the year," Undersecretary Rodolfo said.

The renewable energy/power sector remained as the number one source of investments with Php104.3 billion in the first four months of 2018, up 401 percent from last year's Php20.8 billion in the same period. This was followed by the transportation and storage sector which generated PPhp37.5 billion, up by a remarkable 1566 percent from Php2.25 billion in the same period last year. Manufacturing investment projects meanwhile reached Php15.9 billion, a three percent uptick from last year's Php15.4 billion in the same frame. The water supply, sewerage and waste management Sector (Php13.9 billion) and Real Estate Category (Php12.7 billion) on the otherhand rounded up the top five sectors.

Countryside investments continue to dominate the figures from January to April with an aggregate Php165.5 billion, or 84.6 percent of the total investment pie with the National Capital Region (NCR), accounting for the remaining 15.6 percent share. Overall, Central Luzon (Region III) continues to be the frontrunner among all regions with Php77.4 billion in investments approvals, up 501 percent from last year's Php12.9 billion during the four-month frame. Calabazon (Region IVA) is runner-up with Php52.8 billion. NCR is third with Davao Region (Region XI) and Western Visayas (Region VI) completing the top five with Php14.1 billion and Php3.5 billion, respectively. (ends)
